

Max Mason: Case No. 6785.

Case Files.

Warden's Summary, April 1, 1924.

Max Mason

6785

August 8, 1921

Convicted of rape. Was one of the colored men implicated in the ravishing of a girl in Duluth which resulted in the lynching of two or three of them and in the riot at Duluth in 1921

William Miller, Louis Hayes, Frank Spicer, Clarence Green, L. Williams and Nate Gray.

Served thirty days on Workfarm at Louisville, Ky. Information received cover his time well and speak well of him. Kept steadily employed, spoken of as honest and associates not bad for one of his class.

Single. Parents dead. One brother and two sisters living in Alabama.

First grade

Conduct and disposition uniformly good.

General health good.

Application for parole denied for fourth time in March last. Again eligible in September. Have no recommendations to make.

Warden

Stillwater

1st

April

24